

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Nancy Stirling Neuhauser is the newly-elected president of American National CattleWomen, Inc., and the citizens of South Dakota are proud to have her represent our state; and,

Whereas, Nancy served as president of the South Dakota CattleWomen's organization in 1982 and 1983, and as secretary in 1978 and 1995. She has been active in the organization for 50 years making a distinctive difference in the public's acceptance of beef as a quality and safe product; and,

Whereas, Nancy is a driving force in the beef industry, having served 16 years as state chairwoman of the South Dakota Beef Cook-off, 10 years as a Beef Industry Program Consultant and also representing several national committees; and,

Whereas, Nancy's eight children have always been her support and inspiration; and,

Whereas, Nancy's dedication, talents and enthusiasm for the American National CattleWomen, Inc. and the South Dakota CattleWomen's organization have been vital to the goals of these organizations and vital to the cattle industry and economic viability of their producers:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 2, 2006, as in South Dakota.

NANCY STIRLING NEUHAUSER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State

